Acxius Strategic Consulting Announces Partnership with Bitam

(Morganville, NJ June 2008) - Acxius Strategic Consulting, a Management Consulting and Systems Integration company today announced that it has signed a partnership agreement with Bitam, a Software 500 Company and global provider of Enterprise Performance Management (EPM) solutions, including Business Intelligence (BI), Financial Planning, and Strategic Planning. Under the agreement, Bitam and Acxius Strategic Consulting will work together to deliver high quality EPM solutions in an efficient and cost effective manner to help customers overcome complex business challenges.

“We are pleased to partner with Bitam and committed to delivering reliable and innovative solutions to our clients”, said Biswa Bhattacharya, Managing Partner of Acxius Strategic Consulting. “We performed a detailed evaluation of providers and Bitam was the best choice to provide the value and relevant features inherent in Bitam's product offerings. Our customers will benefit from this partnership by having a cost-effective solution that enhances both the end-user's experience and our client's bottom line.”

“Acxius is a highly regarded consulting firm known for delivering high performance, scalable, integrated solutions in the areas of Data, Information, Performance and Project Management.” said David Abdo, CEO of Bitam. “We are committed to providing our partners with EPM solutions that enable clients to meet their strategic goals and objectives and make solid, accurate business decisions accordingly.”

This partnership with Bitam demonstrates the importance of taking a collaborative approach to technology. Acxius will be offering the Bitam Enterprise Performance Management (EPM) suite of solutions to organizations or individuals looking for tools that provide the fastest analytical and decision making capabilities, and that assist in creating data transparency across their enterprise. Retail, government, transportation, and manufacturing clients will receive a high quality analysis tool with reporting, dashboards, analysis alerts and several other features.
