Acxius Holiday Party

(Parlin, NJ December 7, 2006) - In December 2006, Acxius Strategic Consulting held its annual holiday party at Puerto Vallarta, a popular Mexican restaurant in downtown West Hartford, Connecticut.

This was one of several events for employees at Acxius, thanking them for their service and encouraging them to stay motivated.

The party was great fun with Acxius employees, contractors, clients, and partners coming from all over Connecticut and other New England states; we also had people over from our New Jersey Head Office!

"It was a great chance to meet and mingle with people who are associated with Acxius. We do not get an opportunity to meet very often because of the different office locations and everyone is so busy. It was a pleasure to see so many additions to the organization", says Robert Scott, CTO of Acxius Strategic Consulting.

The conversation was lively over margaritas, enchiladas, tacos, and quesadillas. The consultants, clients and partners socialized with one another on an informal level. Work was discussed, needless to say, but since there were some spouses present too; people did talk about other interesting things! People introduced themselves to each other and appreciated each others work during the year.

Sulabha Savant, Head of Finance, from the New Jersey office says, "I am really glad that I came for the holiday party, it's been so much fun!"

Natasha Dutt and Mary Vlaar from Human Resources gave corporate gifts and cards to all, who were present.

All of us at Acxius are already looking forward to next year's party, maybe one in early Summer!!
